The Weather

The High yesterday 91° The Low this morning 67°

.01 in of rainfall last night and another .01 early this morning for a total of .02 in. overnight.

Today: A 60% chance of rain, probably light, before 1pm, then the sun starts to come back in, taking us up to about 89°. The S-SE wind will be fairly nice at 5-10 mph.

Tonight: A 30% chance of rain before 10pm, then cloudy with a low around 72° and S-SE wind at 5-10 mph.

Tuesday: A 30% chance of rain again, up until 1pm, otherwise partly sunny with a high near 89° and the S-SE wind at 5-15 mph.

Overnight, the rain chances continue at 30%, mostly before 1am, and the low temp should be about 71°.

Rest of the week: The rain chances start to drop as mid-week arrives. The high Wednesday should be 91° and mostly sunny and the south wind will be just 5-10 mph, Thursday, and thru Saturday, should be just sunny and low 90s with light south wind.

Rain chances come back on Sunday.

Monday

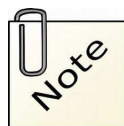

Lampasas County Commissioners will meet in a regular session at 9am. On that agenda are change orders for the Jail construction and an easement agreement where the new Jail is encroaching onto a neighbor's property.

Also on that agenda is the creation of a sub-committee for subdivision rules and regulations, to include Public Improvement District(PID) with the City of Lampasas. There is also a matter having to do with Oncor and LCRA regarding to exchange of certain transmission lines and substation facilities located in Lampasas and other counties. After the regular session, the Commissioners will assemble again at about 10am for a budget workshop.

Lampasas City Council will meet at 5:30pm in a workshop session that will see the 2019-20 budget roll-out as that project begins, go over a CIP report, then a follow-up on the recent Town Hall Meeting.

In regular session at 7pm there will be some reports and a consent agenda, discussion and possible action on approval for Spring Ho Fireworks, a proposal for $55 thousand from Jones-Heroy & Associates on doing an engineering report on the sewer Pretreatment Plant, options for Public Art at City Hall, an ordinance on Residential Septic Waste Disposal charges, and changes to the Code of Ordinances after a recent local option.

The Lometa ISD Board of Trustees will meet on Monday at 6:30pm in the School Library located at 8th and Main in Lometa.

The agenda shows consideration of some bids for a Door Security System; a Grant Management Procedures Handbook for 2019-20; a TASB policy Update 112, the school calendar; budgeting matters and new teacher hires.

On Wednesday:

Lampasas Radio presents WNL – Texas Girl's Night at Johnny Walker's BBQ at 7:30pm. It will be a great show with Texas gals Sarah Hobbs, and Beth Noble at the mics and with string man Cord Jackson backing them up on lead guitar.

If we're lucky, we'll get Cord to help the "always best" second set with some of our favorite sing-alongs.

Johnny Walker will have the smokers on all day, getting ready for the event, so if you bring an appetite... we gotcha covered.

Bring your lawn chairs, coolers and enjoy the always free show from your friends at Lampasas Radio.

Thursday:

The Senior's Tournament is on at Hancock Park and there are other tournaments all through the weekend. See "Sports" for more info.

On Friday:

A Little Night Music on the Square this week will include the music of Eddie Shell and the Not Guilties band. The band will kick off their set at 8pm on the downtown bandstand.

Music Night Live at the Briggs Community Center has been moved to the 4th Friday Night of the month instead of the 4th Saturday. So, Briggs CC fans will be lining up at the door at 6pm for the upstairs music show and there should be a food truck outside.

Local Sports

Lots of Golf at Hancock Park This Week and Weekend

Thursday:

One of Lampasas most famous, and interesting, golf tournaments plays out on Thursday at Hancock Park. It's the 34th Annual Curtis Bozarth Senior Classic.

The tournament tees off at 8am Thursday morning and should be finished about noon. The course will be closed for regular play during that time.

The Senior Classic features flites by age category. There's a 50-59 grouping, a 60-68, 69-76, and over 76 is the Super Senior Flite.

The tournament has been a favorite, since started by a former coach and scratch golfer Curtis Bozarth many years ago.

Friday:

A "Shoot Out" tournament will take place on Friday. It's a sort of pre-tourney for the Show Me The Money tournament described below. It will kick off with a shotgun start at 6pm Friday and features teams in an elimination contest until it gets down to winners. Cash Money prizes are available.

Saturday and Sunday:

Show Me The Money, the weekend tournament at Hancock Park, will kick off on Saturday, June 29th at 10am and finish up on Sunday with a 1pm tee time.

The course will be closed for regular play during those hours so if you want to play outside the tournament, you'll likely have to wait until the Saturday tournament finishes, or you can get it in Sunday morning early and plan to finish by noon-30.

Show Me The Money is a 2 person scramble/low ball tournament. On Saturday it's a Shamle where the team both hit drives, then take the best ball and play out each player's own ball from there, then record the best score. On Sunday, the two players simply play their own balls and record the best score for the hole. Cash money prizes, again, bring out the contestants.

Spring Ho Coming Soon

Our Annual Spring Ho Festival comes this year the week of July 8-14. The Spring Ho Committee and lots of other presenters are getting ready for the event, floats are being planned for the parade, and lots of hopeful contestants are preparing for the different events.

One of those events that contestants must begin preparations for is the annual County Fair, sponsored by the Ag Extension Service. We got this pass-on release from Karen DeZarn, County Extension Agent:

"I hope you are preparing your entries for the 2019 Lampasas County Fair. It is always held during the Spring Ho Festival Wednesday - Friday. This year it will be July 10-12 at the County Annex Conference Room. Bring your entries on Wednesday, July 10 from 4-7 p.m. Viewing will be the afternoon of Thursday, July 11 and Friday, July 12, 10-2.

Categories are: Art, Baked Goods, Canned Goods, Crafts & Textiles, Horticulture, Photography and Theme. Stop by the Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Office at 409 S. Pecan Street, Suite 102, Lampasas to pick up a catalog with full descriptions or go to <http://lampasas.agrilife.org> or <https://springho.com> Call 512-556-8271 Ext. 140 if you have any questions."
