LCRA Awards Grants to Adamsville and Kempner VFWs, Lampasas' 580 Sports Complex,

by Rachel Stanford

On June 26th, the Lower Colorado River Authority sent a press release which states that more than $1 million in community project grants has been awarded to 44 cities throughout central Texas. Of those 44 were Kempner, Adamsville, and Lampasas.

Both Kempner and Adamsville received grant funding for their Volunteer Fire Departments. Adamsville VFW received $19,172 for new extrication tools, including inflatable airbags that can raise and stabilize vehicles, and heavy farm equipment. Kempner VFW received $24,000 for hoses, nozzles, ladders and other essential equipment needed to equip a recently added second-hand engine. The city of Lampasas received $25,000 for construction of the initial 4 miles of a hike and bike trail at the 580 Sports Complex.
